

AETN

The Arkansas Department of Education has partnered with the Arkansas Educational Television Network to meet the professional development needs of K-12 licensed educators by offering research-based, technology-delivered professional development courses to improve academic and teaching knowledge and skills of certified personnel.

Tejas Tech has an ongoing project with AETN for developing and maintaining a Professional Development Application Submission system.